B. DEFENSES & AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

59. This action is subject to the proportionate responsibility provisions of Chapters 32 and 33 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, including (without limitation) the requirement of §33.003 thereof that the trier of fact determine the relative responsibility of each plaintiff, defendant, settling person, and responsible third-party that may be designated in the suit. Defendant specifically reserves any actions for contribution or indemnity against such parties, persons and/or entities, and/or third-parties and reserves its rights under §§33.001 et. seq. of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

60. Regardless of any negligence of Defendant, which Defendant expressly denies, new and independent causes intervened which severed any causal relationship between any alleged act or omission of Defendant, Black Bird Ranch, Patricia Bonaparte, and/or Frank Bonaparte and the damages allegedly sustained by Plaintiffs.

61. The damages, if any, recoverable by Plaintiffs must be limited to a market valuation of the value of Plaintiffs' horses at the time their damages were sustained.

62. Defendant is entitled to an offset or credits for any settlements or other amounts received by Plaintiffs from any source whatsoever related to the damages at issue in this suit pursuant to the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code and other applicable state law. Defendant is entitled to an offset equal to the sum of the dollar amount of all settlements. See Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code §33.012.

C. PRAYER

For these reasons, Defendant The Bonaparte Family Living Trust asks the Court to enter judgment that Plaintiffs Kathryn Sneed and Sneed Equestrian Estates, LLC take nothing from Defendant, dismiss Plaintiffs' complaint with prejudice, assess costs against Plaintiffs, and award Defendant all other relief the Court deems appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,
